

ASSOCIATION “RONDINE CITTADELLA DELLA PACE”

2010 APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE INTERNATIONAL HALL OF RESIDENCE

Rondine Cittadella della Pace has been running one of the most significant and authentic peace programs in Italy for over 10 years. In fact, since 1997 Rondine has housed the International Hall of Residence, made up of young students from different cultures many of whom have recently experienced situations of conflict in their home countries and who wish to participate in a project of peaceful co-existence, training and undergraduate or postgraduate study. The aim of the International Hall of Residence is to facilitate the students' return to their home countries, on completion of their studies, in order for them to follow up on what they have learned at Rondine; that is, the genuine possibility for dialogue, reconciliation and peaceful co-existence.

Introduction

The Association “Rondine Cittadella della Pace” in Arezzo, Tuscany, Italy, is currently recruiting young people who are interested in participating in the Association's project, which includes:

- Participation in the Association's Educational Project: while the Association programmes specific initiatives in the field of personal and intercultural education throughout the year, the core of the educational project is the communal life organised within the International Hall of Residence. Here young students who come from the opposing sides of areas in conflict are united by the same spirit, by the shared aims of the Association and by the friendship that grows between them, over and beyond the obstacles that emerge over the course of their everyday lives.
- A 6 month course in Italian Language and Culture (3 months of intensive language lessons and a further 3 months of language development). This course takes place at the International Hall of Residence in Rondine Cittadella della Pace, preparatory to enrolment in the student's chosen undergraduate or postgraduate programme.
- Enrolment in a 3 year undergraduate program (Laurea I level) or a 1 year postgraduate program (Master) at the University of Arezzo, Florence, Perugia or Siena.
- Field of studies: Economy, Politics, Humanities, International Cooperation, Architecture, Agrarian studies, Education, Communication, Art and Social studies. Excluding law, engineering and medicine.

- Participation in all the cultural activities organised by the Association under the name of the European School of Peace Studies.
- On successful completion of the whole programme the student will receive the “Rondine d’Oro” and will return to his/her home country.

Eligible Candidates

Recruitment is restricted to male and female students between the ages of 19 and 28 (depending on their chosen university programme). Candidates must be able to demonstrate excellent academic achievement in their school programmes.

Candidates must show a clear desire to overcome the negative consequences of conflict and hate; they must be open to dialogue and reconciliation, demonstrating this in their everyday relationships with the other residents living in the International Hall of Residence and in their capacity to inter-relate with the diverse cultures and religions represented.

Candidates must also be clearly determined in their intention to return to their home countries and develop their professional careers in the academic, institutional or commercial worlds, to take up leadership positions and further the cause of peace.

Recruitment

- The recruitment process for the International Hall of Residence involves the following stages, all of which must be successfully completed in order to be eligible for admission:
 - a) Application forms are sent in by the deadline along with all relevant documents (see below);
 - b) A list of suitable candidates is compiled, selected from the applications received;
 - c) Each candidate is called to attend a selection day in his/her home country;
 - d) Candidates chosen for admission are requested to arrive in Italy by the 30th of June 2010, the program start date
 - e) Candidates chosen for admission are invited to live for a trial period at the International Hall of Residence, Arezzo, Italy;
 - f) On successful completion of the trial period (3 month: July, August and September), the candidate is officially admitted to the International Hall of Residence.
- To apply for admission it is necessary to fill in and send off the application form along with the copy of all relevant documentation (Attachment 1), directly to the Association Rondine

Cittadella della Pace. It is also possible to hand your application to one of the Association's local partners who will then send it on to the Association.

- Once all applications have been assessed and a list of suitable candidates has been drawn up, all those on the list will be called to attend a selection day (written or oral tests) which will take place in the candidate's home country in the presence of the examining committee on a specified day, time and place. During the selection interview the candidate can also provide further documentation to support his/her application.
- The home country selection day involves:
 - a) Test and/or interview to assess motivational and behavioural qualities.
 - b) The detailed presentation of a project that the applicant would like to implement in his/her home country on completing his/her stay at the International Hall of Residence. This project could be related to the students' life plan, career plans or cultural interests that he/she wishes to develop. The presentation must include a description of the aims of the project and the various phases necessary to its realisation. This project will already have been included with the candidate's application form.
- On its return to Italy the Examining Committee will present its assessment of candidates to the Selection Committee who will confirm each candidate's eligibility for admission and will draw up a waiting list from which students will be chosen and invited to undergo the three month "trial period" at the International Hall of Residence (the waiting list remains valid for a period of two years).

In Italy

- Candidates chosen for admission will have to reach Arezzo railway station under their own responsibility by the 30th June 2010.
- During the trial period (July, August and September) candidates will have the opportunity to assess whether the experience lives up to his/her expectations, while the Association will assess whether the candidate is indeed suitable for permanent admission. Assessment will also be carried out on the basis of periodic interviews with the Hall of Residence staff. The trial period is regulated by a specific protocol which will be signed by the candidate on his/her arrival.
- Official acceptance of the candidate's permanent admission to the Hall of Residence depends on the positive assessment of the Educational Team, which will be communicated at the end of the trial period. In the case of a negative assessment the candidate will be obliged to return to his/her home country immediately.

- Official acceptance leads to the full and permanent admission of the candidate to the International Hall of Residence and the signing of the Hall of Residence Regulations. The student can lose his/her right to stay in the Hall of Residence at any time if Regulations are not respected.
- Undergraduate programs (Laurea I) start in September 2010. Master courses should start between November 2010 and February 2011.

Costs

- All costs regarding the issuing of visas and the documentation necessary to the university pre-enrolment are the responsibility of the student, as is the preparation of any translation, authentication, or notarial deed required by the Italian authorities. The preparation and authentication of the documents necessary to enrolment in the Italian University is the responsibility of the student. He/she will provide all the required documentation, which must be checked with the Italian Consulate in the country of residence. The Association can provide help and advice on request of the student.
- Students selected from Bosnia Herzegovina, Kosovo, Georgia, Serbia and the Russian Federation have to ask the competent Ministry of Education for the Apostille on their studies certificates. (Please note: the costs for apostille are the responsibility of the student. Only in the Russian Federation apostille issuing times are approximately 2 months and the cost 300 euro)
- Travel costs to and from Italy are the responsibility of the student.
- During the trial period, all costs regarding board and lodging, university fees and study material (text, books, etc), including the course of Italian Language and Culture, are covered by the Association.
- As provided by the Italian Government, the Association will provide medical insurance for each student admitted. During the trial period medical costs are at the students' expense, excluding any emergency.
- For all the period in Italy the Association will not cover costs for any previous diseases contracted before the arrival time in Italy

REGULATIONS (Attachment 2)
INTERNATIONAL HALL OF RESIDENCE
- EXTRACTS -

1. The International Hall of Residence is based in the small village of Rondine, overlooking the river Arno, 10 kilometres from the city of Arezzo. Its old rural houses have recently been restored. Each room sleeps two students, there is a common dining room and there are also several study areas as well as a computer room and a library.
2. The services offered by the International Hall of Residence are run by a team of staff made up of the director, a student tutor and an educational committee, all of whom are employees and volunteers of the Association Rondine Cittadella della Pace. Working collaboratively they contribute to the realisation of the values and activities promoted by the International Hall of Residence.
3. Students living in the International Hall of Residence are, for the entire period of their stay in Italy, under their own personal responsibility. They are, however, committed to respecting the regulations and accepting and acknowledging the guidance of the Director, his/her team and the other members of the Association's staff.
4. The student is committed to maintaining the high reputation of the Association at all times, protecting its ideals and promoting its image with partners, supporters and external contacts in general.
5. The student undertakes to actively participate in the life of the International Hall of Residence and accepts the educational principles of the project, helping to reach a high level of communal life, characterized by friendship, sincerity, trust, open – mindedness and the desire to improve.
6. The student is committed to reaching an excellent knowledge of the Italian language.
7. The student is committed to participate in all the various initiatives run by the Association, as agreed, on admission to the Hall of Residence. The specific ways in which the Educational Project will be yearly realized are reported in the Educational Programme of the Hall of Residence and in the Association's Cultural Project.

8. Daily life is organised with the aim of providing maximum personal autonomy (cleaning, laundry, ironing) while sharing common tasks (cleaning, cooking, setting and clearing tables, washing up and maintaining communal spaces such as bathrooms, sitting rooms, library, class rooms, kitchens). Residents are also expected to participate in social activities (sports, welcoming of people and groups, dinners etc.).
9. During the student's period of stay in the Hall of Residence, all costs regarding board, lodging, university fees and medical assurance are covered by the Association. Travel costs from and to his/her address, holiday travels and personal expenses are the responsibility of the student. A little amount for the student's personal maintenance can be assessed, according to the rules deliberated by the Managing Board. At this aim, each student arriving in the Hall of Residence should present the documentation necessary to attest his/her family's economic situation.
10. Students are committed to returning to their home countries on completion of the programme, investing their knowledge, skills and experience within their home communities.
11. The student can lose his/her right to a place in the Hall of Residence at any time as a result of his/her failure to fulfil the stipulated study requirements, lack of participation in the activities run by the Hall of Residence and the Association, or lack of adherence to the regulations.
12. Trips abroad or temporary return to your home country must be duly authorised by the Association. Any trips abroad are only possible after receiving a valid Italian permit of stay.
13. Students cannot change their chosen course of studies or university. Permission to carry out paid working activity must be agreed with and authorised by the Association.
14. Each student must agree his/her study course with the Director in a detailed way. This course will be specific to each student and his/her results will be monitored and evaluated. Every student has to fulfil all the scheduled duties concerning attendance and tests, and he/she must reach an optimal level of performance.
