About E.MA

The European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation (E.MA) is the main teaching programme of the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation \(EIUC\)

E.MA is an intensive one-year advanced master's programme aimed at educating 90 professionals in human rights, democracy, peace and development. The programme offers an action- and policy-oriented approach to learning which combines interdisciplinary perspectives with skills building activities.

While studying in a multicultural environment, students have the opportunity to meet and be taught by leading academics representing the 41 E.MA participating universities, representatives of international organisations (including the European Union, the United Nations, the Council of Europe and the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe-OSCE), NGO experts, and human rights activists.
