

2014¹⁵

Visegrad scholarship program

key advantages over other scholarship programs

- Choose any academic field
- Study in any language
- Pick your school, i.e., study at any accredited public or private university or any institute of the science academies in the Visegrad countries (CZECH REPUBLIC, HUNGARY, POLAND, OR SLOVAKIA), in the Western Balkans, or countries of the Eastern Partnership.
- Study or conduct research at Masters (MA) or Post-Masters (PhD/postdoc) levels
- Choose the length of study: 1–4 semesters (depending on scholarship type)

basic conditions

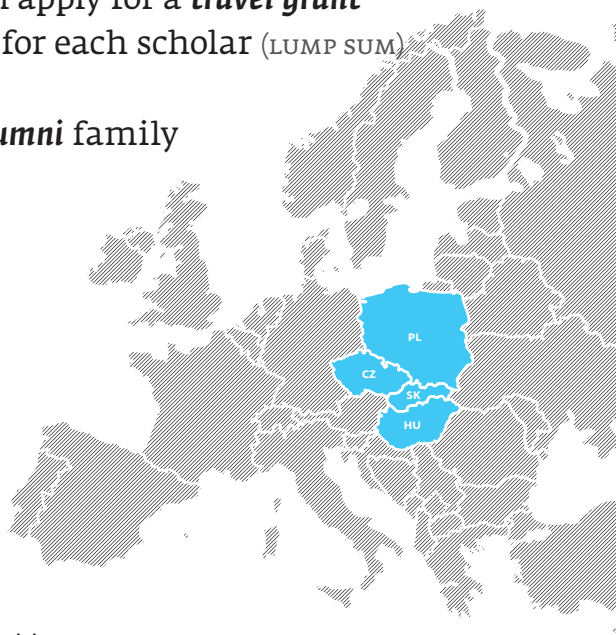

- Applicants have successfully completed at least 6 semesters of university studies (APPLIES ONLY TO MA-LEVEL APPLICANTS)
- There is no age limit and scholars can apply even if they are no longer studying
- Applicants must be citizens of one of the following countries/territories: Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Czech Rep., Georgia, Hungary, Kosovo,* Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, or Ukraine
- Applicants approach the host university/institute themselves
- Applicants apply on-line and send the signed application form with accompanying documents by January 31, 2014

support

- Scholars receive €2,300/semester and can apply for a travel grant
- Host institution receives €1,500/semester for each scholar (LUMP SUM)
- Scholars can re-apply
- Scholars can join the growing Visegrad Alumni family learn more

- For instructions and program rules see www.visegradfund.org/scholarships

2014¹⁵

Visegrad Scholarships at OSA

basic facts

- short-term research fellowships
at Open Society Archives (CEU BUDAPEST)
- available for scholars, artists, journalists or documentary filmmakers
- continuous deadline
- research topics in academic year 2013/2014:
 - Welfare policies in Soviet-type societies;
 - Social solidarity or possible explanations of the lack of it under socialism;
 - Ideological and cultural aspirations (and their roots) of anti-regime movements in Soviet-type societies;
 - Documenting human rights violations in order to aid reconciliation in post-conflict societies.
- www.visegradfund.org/osa

2014¹⁵

Visegrad–Taiwan Scholarships

basic facts

- 2-semester research fellowships
at top universities and research centers in Taiwan
- PhD/postdoc levels
- areas of support:
 - nanotechnology
 - electrotechnical industry
 - biotechnology
 - information technology
 - tourism
 - social studies and humanities
- www.visegradfund.org/taiwan

Visegrad Fund

www.visegradfund.org

International Visegrad Fund • Kráľovské údolie 8, 811 02 Bratislava • Slovakia

Tel.: +421 2 59 203 811 • Tel.: +421 2 59 203 802 • fax: +421 2 59 203 805

www.facebook.com/visegradfund www.twitter.com/visegradfund