One-Year Action (Strategic) Plan for Development of LEPL Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University (2011-2012)

One-year action (strategic) plan for the development of LEPL Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University (2011-2012) is based on the following priorities:

- Research environment;
- Learning environment;
- Internationalization;
- Development of competences;
- Profile.

One-year action (strategic) plan comprises the following activities:

- To provide successful external assessments;
- To participate in the world university ranking system;
- To bring the doctoral programs into compliance with international standards;
- To support scholar mobility and increase the number of mobility programs;
- To strengthen the University's international strategic alliances;
- To create a financial framework oriented to the development of research environment;
- To develop long-term research programs;
- To use research base for consulting;
- To strengthen new, interdisciplinary and fundamental research activities;
- To enhance the transfer of technologies and research innovations between business community and the University;
- To improve the quality of academic programs;
- To create new academic programs in line with the requirements of the future;
- To increase the importance and quality of continuing education;
- To ensure the authorization and accreditation;
- To improve logistics and public relations;
- To ensure consumer-oriented administrative and technical services;
- To assess and reconsider/plan ongoing and future administrative activities;
- To create/improve new systems in various fields;
- To build modern infrastructure that will promote the University's effective functioning;
- To prepare the university library development plan;
- To prepare the information technology development plan;
- To develop effective internal quality assurance systems;
- To join international networks and forums;
- To increase the number of international agreements;
- To strengthen administrative support for internationalization.